

“A novel of espionage as intricate in the plotting as a chess match between two grand masters.

Victor Marchetti is a former CIA operative, and his factual backgrounds are convincing enough to make one hope that this story is the sheerest fiction.”

John Barkham
Saturday Review Syndicate

Soon to be filmed as an important motion
picture by Ernest Tidyman (Shaft and
The French Connection)

The ultimate spy novel—by a man who spent 15 years in top echelon CIA posts. The view from inside—of spies, controls and the politics of power.

Now going into its 3rd printing. Subject of many lead stories in magazines and newspapers, such as U.S. News and World Report, The Washington Post and many others. $6.95